Chord symbols: B $\flat$, G $\flat$ /A $\flat$, A $\flat$ /G $\flat$, B $\flat$, 8 va , 8 vb

The musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is a vocal line in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with a whole note G4, followed by a quarter rest, then a half note F4, a quarter note E4, and a half note D4. The lyrics "fol - low the Light!" are written below the staff, with a long line indicating the phrase continues. The second and third staves are piano accompaniment in treble and bass clefs, respectively, both with a key signature of two flats. They feature sustained chords in the right hand and moving lines in the left hand. The fourth staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of two flats. It contains complex chordal textures and moving lines. Chord symbols B $\flat$, G $\flat$ /A $\flat$, A $\flat$ /G $\flat$, and B $\flat$ are placed above the right-hand part. An 8 va (octave up) marking is above a chord in the right hand, and an 8 vb (octave down) marking is below a chord in the left hand. A large, diagonal watermark "For Preview Only" is overlaid across the bottom half of the page.

Brand New Hallelujah

(Optional Narration)

FESTIVE CAROL MEDLEY

(After “Festive Carol Medley” without music) Come and worship Christ the King! The very essence of Christmas is captured in this simple yet profound invitation. Think about it . . . the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation . . . He became flesh and blood and left heaven to come to us . . . That same Jesus calls us even now to come to Him: this King of kings, this Baby, wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger. (Music begins “Emmanuel God with Us”) He is Emmanuel! God with us. He is the reason we come. He alone is worthy of our worship.

EMMANUEL GOD WITH US

(After “Emmanuel God with Us” without music) Down through the centuries, the songs of the season have become an essential part our celebration. Timeless refrains, handed down from generation to generation, continue to warm our hearts as each December we come once again to the season. But the song of Christmas didn’t begin with the carols we hold as familiar. Mary, upon hearing the words from Elizabeth, sang, “My soul doth magnify the Lord.” (Music begins “Gloria (The King Has Come)”) Scripture also tells us on the night Christ was born, an angel appeared to some shepherds followed by a great host of angels singing, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.”

GLORIA (THE KING HAS COME)

(After “Gloria (The King Has Come)” without music) Although more than two thousand years have passed since the anthem of praise first resounded over the Judean hillside, the song has only begun. (Music begins “Brand New Hallelujah”) For every seeker who comes to know the Savior, a new voice is added . . . a new chorus lifted. It’s the song of a soul set free that cannot and will not be silenced. It’s a Brand! New! Hallelujah!

BRAND NEW HALLELUJAH

GLORY IN THE HIGHEST

(Over Intro of “Glory in the Highest”) And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory: glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

HE CAME DOWN

MANGER CAROL MEDLEY

(Over Intro of “Manger Carol Medley”) And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

(After “Manger Carol Medley” without music) For unto us a child is born and He has come that we might know Him in all of His glory. No matter where you’ve been or how long the journey has been, He is longing . . . calling . . . reaching for you. In the midst of chaos, He is the Prince of Peace. In your disappointment, He is a Comforter to the broken, He is a Redeemer, and to those who walk in darkness He is the Light of the World.

(Music begins “Follow the Light”) If you’re ready to experience the true joy of the season . . . the reason He came . . . He’s ready to show you the way.
