

33                                     rit.   f                                     A little faster  $\text{J} = \text{ca. } 55$

Lose                                     all                                     their guilt - y,

CHOIR f

Lose                                     all                                     their guilt - y

$\text{Cm}^7$                                       $\text{F}$                                       $\text{E}^\flat$                                       $\text{G}$                                       $\text{F}$                                       $\text{A}$                                       $\text{B}^\flat$                                       $\text{Fm}^7$                                       $\text{B}^\flat$

$\text{F}$     $\text{G}$                                       $\text{A}$                                       $\text{B}^\flat$                                       $\text{Fm}^7$                                       $\text{B}^\flat$

rit.   f a little faster

35   CD: 6     CD: 11

their guilt - y stains.                             Lose                                     their guilt - y

stains,   lose                                     all                                     their guilt - y

$\text{E}^\flat$     $\text{C m}^7$                                       $\text{D m}^7$                                       $\text{G m}^7$